

Aging with Dignity

The Descendants Truth & Reconciliation Foundation has joined forces with Rosarium Health to address a critical need: enabling individuals to age with dignity in the comfort of their own homes. This groundbreaking partnership combines the Foundation's dedication to justice and reconciliation with Rosarium Health's trusted expertise in home safety and health-focused renovations. Together, we are transforming lives by making homes safer, healthier, and better suited to their residents' unique needs.

With Rosarium Health, the Descendants Truth & Reconciliation Foundation delivers home modifications that meet unique needs and help Descendants remain in their homes safely and remain connected with their communities.

- Accessible ramps
- Bathroom modifications
- Flooring modifications
- Railings and grab bars
- Pest control
- Weatherization
- Widened doorways

Inquire for yourself or a family member

To express interest in the Aging with Dignity program, scan the QR code. Learn more about the Descendants Truth & Reconciliation Foundation at www.descendants.org.

Eligibility

- Certified as a Descendant
- 50 years of age or older
- Reside in our pilot program states of Louisiana or Texas (program will expand in the future)
- Live in a residential housing unit as a renter (tenant) or homeowner

What we offer

Software coordinates in-home assessments, modifications and services

Every clinician home assessor is insured and has earned an MS or PhD in Physical or Occupational Therapy

Professional contractors are licensed and bonded, plus trained to provide aging-in-place modifications

Rosarium brings deep experience serving hospital and home care patients, and members of health insurance companies